

Communiqué Number 16 on the Day of Salvation Sit-in on April 9th

In the name of God the beneficent and the merciful

Dear generous Iraqi people, our young free brothers . . . Greetings on to you all. Your brothers with “The Popular Movement to Save Iraq”, “The Popular Front to Save Kirkuk”, “The Student and Youth Organization of a Free Iraq”, “The Movement in Steadfast Basra to Liberate the South” and “The Iraqi Association of the Tribes of Southern and Central Iraq” have decided to launch a long-term sit-in in all Iraqi provinces to mark the eighth anniversary of the brutal American occupation of our precious Iraq on Saturday, 4/9/2011, demanding the end of the American occupation and foreign interference. This sit-in will not last hours or days, but will continue night and day until the protesters demands are met, which include the following:

- The unconditional departure of the occupying forces, the revocation of the security agreement which violates the sovereignty and independence of Iraq, the revocation of the sectarian and ethnic quota system in the political process, and the building of a civil Iraqi state through transparent elections, without the interference of the occupation forces or any foreign, regional force, especially Iran
- The release of the innocent prisoners from occupation and government prisons, and the disclosure of the location of secret prisons that are scattered all over Iraq’s provinces
- Carrying out the demands of our people which were outlined during the “Uprising of Rage” on February 25th, and the formation of an independent judicial committee to investigate the actions of the security forces against peaceful demonstrators [involved in protests over this last month]

With these conditions, and with God’s blessing, our peaceful and civil sit-in will begin. Once our demands are met the demonstrations will end. For our sit-in we will set up tents in front of US military bases, which are located in every Iraqi province. We ask all the patriotic individuals and forces that oppose the occupation to participate in this demonstration. There will be a planning committee in each Iraqi province, in addition to the central planning committee in Iraq, as listed below.
